Ministry of Relief and Rehabilitation
New Delhi, the 12th February 1949.

My dear

In our letter No.32/SC/48 dated 28th December 1948 we had invited the views of Provincial Governments about Central legislation in regard to evacuee property, the definition of evacuee, and the possibility of imposing certain restrictions on the sale of property by intending migrants. The replies of most of the Provincial Governments have been received, and the Central Government is contemplating legislation on these points. Meanwhile I am writing this to request you to take such steps as your Government considers suitable to prevent the frittering away of Muslim property in your Province by sale, especially to non-refugees. There is, however, no objection to exchanges being allowed with property left behind by non-Muslim in Pakistan.

Sales of Muslim property in East Punjab, Himachal Pradesh, Delhi, Ajmer-Merwara, the districts of Sharanpur, Meerut, Dehra Dun and Muzaffarnagar in the United Provinces, and the States Unions of Patiala and East Punjab, Matsya, and Saurashtra as well as states of Jaipur, Jodhpur and Bikaner will continue to be allowed subject to the terms of the Inter-Dominion agreement entered into at Karachi in January 1949.

Kindly acknowledge receipt of this letter.

Yours sincerely,

Ministry of Relief and Rehabilitation;

New Delhi, the 28th December 1948.

To

The Chief Secretaries to all Provincial Governments (Except West Bengal and Assam), and
The Chief Commissioner,
Coorg and Cutch.

Sir,

It has come to the notice of the Government of India that while Muslims who have migrated to the Dominion of Pakistan can secure income from their property and dispose it of by sale, exchange or otherwise except when the property happens to be situated in East Punjab, East Punjab States, Delhi and Ajmer-Merwara, the refugees in the Indian Dominion can neither derive any income from their property left in Pakistan nor can they dispose it of, if they so desire. Reports which the Government of India have so far received also go to show that there are Indian Muslims who while owing allegiance to the Indian Dominion, are in fact waiting to dispose of their property at prices far above the market rate before migrating to the Dominion of Pakistan. Cases have also come to the notice of the Government of India where Muslims from India have gone to Pakistan leaving their agents or some member of the family to manage their property. Not only are they receiving the income from such properties but they have also been able to acquire the business concerns and residential premises of the refugees who have come to India. The Government of India cannot countenance the present state of affairs which places the non-Muslim refugee who are nationals of India at a definite disadvantage as compared to those Muslims who have either migrated or are about to migrate to Pakistan. It has, therefore, been suggested that a possible equitable solution of this vexed problem would be to allow exchanges of property between non-Muslim refugees from Western Pakistan and Muslims who have already migrated or are about to migrate to Pakistan. to Pakistan. This will enable those Muslims who wish to become Pakistan Nationals to dispose of their property in the Indian Dominion before migrating to Pakistan and at the same time, It will help in expediting the re-settlement of large number of refugees who have migrated to the Indian Dominion. This suggestion is, however, open to the objection that it savours of discrimination against a section of the population.

2. Another course which suggests itself to the Government of India is that a Central Evacuee Property Law should be enacted for the whole of India, as in Pakistan. Under this Law, an evacuee should be defined as a person who has left India for Pakistan on account of the Partition of the country. In such cases, even if the evacuee has arranged for the management of his property by an agent or by leaving behind some one in the family, the property should be treated as an evacuee property. Such legislation will cover the case of those individuals who have already migrated to Pakistan.

To cover the case of intending migrants if is further proposed that no sales of immovable property whether rural or urban shall be permitted except with the previous sanction of the Deputy Commissioner or Collector of the district where the property is situated. If the Deputy Commissioner after making the making the necessary enquiries, finds that the underlying object of the sale is the disposal of property with a view to migration to Pakistan, sanction of such sale shall be withheld and the applicant will be permitted to exchange his property with the property left behind by non-Muslim refugees from Western Pakistan. The Government of India anticipate that there may be some administrative difficulties in ascertaining the underlying motive of such disposal ~~of~~ of property, but it is not likely to be insuperable.

3. The Government of India have under consideration the enactment of legislation on the lines referred to in para 2 above. Before, however, any decision is taken you are requested to send the views of your Government on this proposal as well as general survey made in your Province with a view to furnish information on the following points at a very early date:-

- (a) the extent to which property of Muslims who have left for Pakistan would be available in your Province; and
- (b) whether, in the event of exchanges being freely allowed, Muslims in your Province will take the opportunity of exchanging ~~their~~ their property in India with property in Pakistan.

4. As the matter is of extreme urgency the Government of India will be grateful for a reply by the 10th of January, 1949.

Yours faithfully,

As the law stands at present, the Sub-Registrars have no power to refuse to register sales of immovable property by intending migrants to Pakistan, nor have they any power to hold an enquiry - Judicial or otherwise - with a view to ascertain that the executant of a sale deed has no intention of migrating to Pakistan. Subject: Regarding Evacuee Property.

In continuation of my letter No.7917/C.B. dated 25th March 1949, I am directed to state that so far no case of frittering away of Muslim property has been reported. There are also no properties of Muslims who left for Pakistan available in Mysore State, and it is also reported that Muslims of this State are not generally in favour of going to Pakistan.
